Re: William Couch v. John Jabe, et al. / Case No. 7:09-cv-00434

Dear Mr. Corcoran:

By Order dated 09/01/2010 (Dckt. 44), the Court resolved this litigation by granted my motion for summary judgment and denying defendants' motion for summary judgment.

On 09/09/2010, as the prevailing party, I filed my Motion for Costs and Expenses along with my Verified bill of Costs (Dckt. 46), whereby I asked the court to tax costs to defendants to enable me to recoup my filing fee of $350. I have not received a response from the court or from defendants. I understood that recouping my filing fee was routine. Perhaps I was mistaken.

Please tell me the status of my motion to tax costs. I appreciate your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

William R. Couch
